Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditors' report that includes our opinion of account of the control of the co

Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with ISAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with ISAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the FZE's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the FZE's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditors' report to the related disclosures in the financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditors' report. However, future events or conditions may cause the FZE to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with International Standard on Auditing, to obtain reasonable assurance, whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

3 Significant Accounting Policies

3.1 Statement of compliance

These financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) as issued by the International Accounting Standards Board (IASB).

3.2 Basis of preparation

These financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention. The fair / net realizable value concept of measurement of assets and liabilities has also been applied wherever applicable under (IFRS).

3.3 Revenue recognition

Revenue is recognised to the extent that it is probable that the economic benefits will flow to the FZE and the revenue can be reliably measured.

To determine whether to recognise revenue, the FZE follows a 5-step process as per IFRS 15:

- i. Identifying the contract with a customer
- ii. Identifying the performance obligations
- iii. Determining the transaction price
- iv. Allocating the transaction price to the performance obligations
- v. Recognising revenue when performance obligation(s) are satisfied

The FZE assesses its revenue arrangements against specific criteria in order to determine if it is acting as a principal or agent. The FZE has concluded that it is acting as a principal in all of its revenue arrangements.

Hamriyah Free Zone, Sharjah, United Arab Emirates

Annual Financial Statements for the year ended 31st March, 2023 Notes to the Financial Statements

Revenue on rendering of services is recognized as per the terms of the contracts with the customers and comprises of the invoiced value of services (net of discounts) rendered during the year.

3.4 Functional and reporting currency

Items included in the financial statements of the (FZE) are measured using the currency of the primary economic environment in which the FZE operates ("the functional currency"). The financial statements of the FZE are presented in U A E Dirhamss ("AED"), which is the FZE's functional and presentation currency. All financial information presented in AED has been rounded off to the nearest AED.

3.5 Foreign currency transactions

Foreign currency transactions are recorded in U A E Dirhams at the approximate rate of exchange ruling at the time of the transaction. Assets and liabilities expressed in foreign currencies at the statement of financial position date are translated into U A E Dirhams at the period end rate of exchange. All foreign currency gains or losses are booked in the statement of comprehensive income as and when they arise.

3.6 End-of-service benefits

The (FZE) provides end-of-service benefits to its expatriate employees. The entitlement to these benefits is based upon the employees' last drawn salary and length of service, subject to the completion of a minimum service year. The expected costs of these benefits are accrued over the year of employment in accordance with the provisions of UAE Labour Law.

3.7 Provisions

A provision is recognized in the statement of financial position when the (FZE) has a legal or constructive obligation as a result of a past event, it is probable that an outflow of economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation and a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation. If the effect is material, provisions are determined by discounting the expected future cash flows at a rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and, where appropriate, the risks specific to the liability.

3.8 Cash and cash equivalents

For the purpose of the statement of cash flows, the (FZE) considers banks balances and bank deposits with a maturity of less than three months from the date of placement to be part of cash and cash equivalents.

3.9 Use of estimates and judgments

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with IFRSs requires management to make judgements, estimates and assumptions that affect the application of accounting policies and the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, income and expenses. Actual results may differ from these estimates.

The estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed by the management on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognised in the period in which the estimate is revised and in any future periods affected.

New standard, amendments and interpretations issued but not yet effective

A number of new standards and amendments to standards are effective for annual periods beginning after 1 January 2023 and earlier application is permitted; however, the (FZE) has not applied the following new or amended standards in preparing these financial statements:

Standard: IFRS 16 Leases

Effective date: Annual periods beginning on or after - 1 January 2024

Details of amendment:

Lease Liability in a Sale and Leaseback: The narrow-scope amendment requires a seller-lessee in a sale and leaseback transaction to determine 'lease payments' or 'revised lease payments' in a way that the seller-lessee would not recognise any amount of a gain or loss relating to the right of use retained by the seller-lessee. The new requirement does not prevent the seller-lessee from recognising in profit or loss any gain or loss relating to the partial or full termination of a lease.

Standard: IFRS 17 Insurance contracts

Effective date: Annual periods beginning on or after - 1 January 2023

Details of amendment:

IFRS 17 creates one accounting model for all insurance contracts in all jurisdictions that apply IFRS.

- o IFRS 17 requires an entity to measure insurance contracts using updated estimates and assumptions that reflect the timing of oThe financial statements of an entity will reflect the time value of money in estimated payments required to settle incurred claims.
- o Insurance contracts are required to be measured based only on the obligations created by the contracts.
- o An entity will be required to recognise profits as an insurance service is delivered, rather than on receipt of premiums.
- o This standard replaces IFRS 4 Insurance Contracts

Standard: IAS 1 Presentation of Financial Statements

Effective date: Annual periods beginning on or after - 1 January 2023

Details of amendment:

Classification of Liabilities as Current or Non-current: Narrow-scope amendments to IAS 1 to clarify how to classify debt and other liabilities as current or non-current.

Disclosure of Accounting Policies: The amendments require companies to disclose their material accounting policy information rather than their significant accounting policies, with additional guidance added to the Standard to explain how an entity can identify material accounting policy information with examples of when accounting police information is likely to be material.

Hamriyah Free Zone, Sharjah, United Arab Emirates

Annual Financial Statements for the year ended 31st March, 2023

Notes to the Financial Statements

Standard: IAS 8 Accounting Policies, Changes in Accounting Estimates and Errors

Effective date: Annual periods beginning on or after - 1 January 2023

Details of amendment:

Definition of Accounting Estimates: The amendments clarify how companies should distinguish changes in accounting policies from changes in accounting estimates, by replacing the definition of a change in accounting estimates with a new definition of accounting estimates. Under the new definition, accounting estimates are "monetary amounts in financial statements that are subject to measurement uncertainty". The requirements for recognising the effect of change in accounting prospectively remain unchanged.

Standard: IAS 12 Income Taxes

Effective date: Annual periods beginning on or after - 1 January 2023

Details of amendment:

Deferred Tax related to Assets and Liabilities arising from a Single Transaction: The amendment clarifies how a FZE accounts for income tax, including deferred tax, which represents tax payable or recoverable in the future. In specified circumstances, companies are exempt from recognising deferred tax when they recognise assets or liabilities for the first time. The aim of the amendments is to reduce diversity in the reporting of deferred tax on leases and decommissioning obligations, by clarifying when the exemption from recognising deferred tax would apply to the initial recognition of such items.

Standard: IAS 28 Investments in Associates and Joint Ventures

Effective date: The effective date of this amendment has been deferred indefinitely until further notice Details of amendment:

Sale or Contribution of Assets between an Investor and its Associate or Joint Venture (Amendments to IFRS 10 and IAS 28): Narrow scope amendment to address an acknowledged inconsistency between the requirements in IFRS 10 and those in IAS 28 (2011), in dealing with the sale or contribution of assets between an investor and its associate or joint venture.

Standards, amendments and interpretations issued and effective in the year 2022 but not relevant

The following new standards, amendments to existing standards and interpretations to published standards are mandatory for accounting periods beginning on or after 1 January 2022 or subsequent periods, but are not relevant to the (FZE's) operations:

Standard: IFRS 1 First-time Adoption of International Financial Reporting Standards

Effective date: Annual periods beginning on or after - 1 January 2022

Details of amendment:

Annual Improvements to IFRS Standards 2018–2020: Extension of an optional exemption permitting a subsidiary that becomes a first-time adopter after its parent to measure cumulative translation differences using the amounts reported by its parent, based on the parent's date of transition to IFRSs. A similar election is available to an associate or joint venture.

Standard: IFRS 3 Business Combinations

Effective date: Annual periods beginning on or after - 1 January 2022

Details of amendment:

Reference to the Conceptual Framework: The amendment updates a reference in IFRS 3 to the Conceptual Framework for Financial Reporting without changing the accounting requirements for business combinations.

Hamriyah Free Zone, Sharjah, United Arab Emirates

Property, Plant and Equipment: Proceeds before Intended Use: The amendments prohibit an entity from deducting from the cost of an item of property, plant and equipment any proceeds from selling items produced while bringing that asset to the location and condition necessary for it to be capable of operating in the manner intended by management. Instead, an entity recognises the proceeds from selling such items, and the cost of producing those items, in profit or loss.
